European.

Dates to January 20. The Great Eastern had been bought at auction for £130,000.

The Prussian military preparations were progressing vigorously. The Austrian force for Sch leswig will hardly number 20,000 men.

It is stated that an English squadron has been ordered to Helligoland. On the 18th, the Emperor of Austria reviewed

200,000 troops, who are to march immediately for Schleswig-Holstein. Denmark has rejected the Austrian-Prussian ultimatum, and the Austrian and Prussian ambassadors are reported to have quitted Copenhagen. The Times says : On the Danish side, the last resolve has been taken, and should any German regiment advance beyond the northern boundary of the Pederal Territory, Denmark is resolved to enter on the war with all her energy. It is quite time that the two great German Powers had declared their future course with equal precision. It is reported that the excitement is increasing throughout Germany and at Vienna. There is universal belief of active movements in the spring. The Bank of England has raised the rate of interest to 8 per cent.

Bullion in the Bank of England has decreased nearly £500,000. The Bank of France has lost during the month 44,000,000 francs in specie. Paris, January 14 .- Duke Maximilian is expected here early in February. In the course of the debate on the address M. Thiers attacked the abuses of the Administration and declared his opinion that universal suffrage will prove the only safeguard of the country.

Opposition speeches in the Corps Legislatif have given rise to alarming remarks in Paris. It is stated that the Emperor is greatly offended, and there were so a e rumors of a possible coup d'état.

In the French Corps Legislatif several amendments to an address were introduced expressing greater sympathy with Poland and declaring it expedient to recognize the Poles as belligerents.

The report of the committee on the supplementary credits asked by Government, warns the Executive against the dangerous entanglements. It unanimously advises that an end be put to the Mexican expedition as soon as the honor of France will permit. The committees wind up by proposing the adoption

The King of Denmark has issued a splendid warlike address to the army. He calls on it to uphold the honor of the country by force if necessary. A Copenhagen telegram says 14,000 troops of the reserve have been called out.

The report that an Anglo-French fleet would soon visit Copenhagen is contradicted, but the fact that the English ca muel fleet is recalled home lends some color to the statement. The German troops in Holstein show continued activity. An official and general correspondence of Vienna cautions the minor German States against precipating action against Denmark, and warns them against carrying out the attack.

LONDON, January 19 .- The Times' city article says the demand sent to Denmark by Austria and Prussia for the withdrawal of the Constitutional forces, on pain of the immediate occupation of Schleswig-Holstein, had produced a depression in all the markets yesterday. In foreign securities extreme heaviness prevailed.

The Government investigations into the case of the rebel privateer Rappahannock, late war steamer Victor, resulted in proving certain officials at Sheerness guilty of gross neglect of duty and violation of the neutrality laws, The Government is determined to prosecute Mr. Quinble, the principle engineer and inspector, who was brought before a magistrate and yet been taken against the others.

A Hamburg telegram says the Danes had opened the dams of the Elder, to inundate the country. The approaches to Frederickstadt had been obstructed. The principal military force of Denmark was 16,000 men, concentrated in the city of Schleswig, where colossal palisades and extensive barricades were being erected. A class of soldiers of the age of 35, had been called out by the Danish Government. Warlike preparations were going on in Norway.

It is reported that Saxony and Hanover will allow free passage to the Austrian and Prussian troops. They are to march without delay into Schleswig.

The London Times of January 24th has a report that Denmark has offered to suspend the obnoxious Constitution and address. If such an offer has been made it will for a time avert the imminent danger of an European war.

The Paris correspondent of the London Herald says that France is quietly but actively preparing for war. Tents, horses, ambulances, shoes, uniforms, and in short all the requirements for campaigning, are being prepared on a formidable scale. Other correspondents speak of a general impression in France that there will be war in the spring, though it is not agreed with what Power. it is not agreed with what Power.

In political circles in Paris the Congress is thought hopeless, but negociations respecting it will probably drag on for some time. The grossest exaggerations against Russia are circulated in the French papers, the object being to inflame the public mind in favor of Poland.
